MULTIFAMILY

Dear Valued Subcontractor,

Attached is the vendor packet for IPS Multifamily LLC. that I need you to fill out, sign and return along with the W-9 and COI with IPS Multifamily LLC. as a certificate holder and additional insured.

There is a sample COI in the packet that shows what is needed as far as limits as well as the needed verbiage in the description of operations. You can forward this sample to your insurance agent to follow and then email me the needed copy.

If you do not have workman's comp because you are exempt, then I will need a copy of your exemption certificate as well.

Please make sure you read our invoice procedures, so you know when payments are expected to be received and where to send your invoice.

Please have all the needed documents to this office before you start work with IPS so that payments are not delayed waiting for the paperwork.

If you have any further questions do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Josefa Barros

As a member of the IPS Multifamily team, it is easy to understand how the behavior of one individual may affect everyone on the team, especially when that behavior involves dishonesty or company ethics violations. Not only are your reputation and your company's reputation at stake, company income, which directly affects employee bonuses and pay raises, is also at stake. Our Code of Conduct requires all of us to be alert to possible violations.

We are aware that the great majority of our employees, vendors and contractors operate honestly and ethically. In those few instances where it may be otherwise, we highly encourage you to help us to make a stand against dishonest or unethical conduct. Your call will help.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.
